

Justin C. Tran
18026 SW Loxley Dr. Beaverton, Oregon
(503)515-7462
E-Mail: jctran@princeton.edu

Technical Skills

- Experienced with Java, JavaScript, and Python
- Skilled in bug-testing Android applications, ROMs, and custom kernels with professional software developers on XDA-Developers.com
 - Tested custom Android kernels (Franco and ElementalX) extensively for the Nexus 5
- Linux user with knowledge in using Bash
- Native Cantonese Chinese speaker

Education

Princeton University (September 2016 – Present)

- Majoring in Computer Science, B.S.E.

Aloha High School (September 2012 – June 2016)

- Weighted GPA: 4.589

Work Experience

Princeton University Dining Services (September 2016 – Present)

- Performed administrative functions and accommodated dining hall attendees

Achievements/Activities

Princeton University eSports Club President (September 2016 – Present)

- Coordinated activities to grow the competitive gaming community at Princeton for nationwide competitive play in the Collegiate Star League and Tespa while managing school-wide gaming events in partnership with Blizzard Entertainment, Inc. and Riot Games, Inc.

Princeton University Engineering Council Vice Tech Chair (September 2016 – Present)

- Managed the Princeton Engineering Council's website and created other online resources, such as a database of tech-related internship opportunities.

Princeton Journal of East Asian Studies Web Developer (November 2016 – Present)

- Developed the PJEAS website and reworked the website to allow easier access to archives while maintaining the website for visitor accessibility during publication